declaration

finally, please read this declaration

- I would like the Financial Ombudsman Service to look into my complaint.
- To the best of my knowledge, everything I have told you is correct.
- I understand that, to help resolve my complaint, you will need to use and keep personal information about me – for example, how to contact me and details about my complaint and sometimes sensitive personal information.
- I understand that this might include collecting information about me from the business I've complained about and possibly sharing information with other parties – for example, other businesses that may have been involved in my complaint.
- I understand you have a duty to publish your ombudsmen's final decisions on your website – with complainants' details removed – but that most cases can be resolved before they reach an ombudsman.

what's next?

Please confirm, by marking the relevant circles, that you:

- agree to the declaration above. We can only look into your complaint if you do. yes no
- are happy to speak to us on the phone and understand that our calls are normally recorded. Otherwise, we will need to be able to contact you electronically or by post instead. This may mean your complaint takes longer to resolve than if we were able to speak by phone. yes no
- are happy for us to contact you for feedback about our service. Having people's views on our service is vital for helping to improve what we do. Giving feedback is completely optional. yes no

Where you've agreed to any of the statements above, you can withdraw your consent at any time.

if you're complaining on behalf of a business, charity or trust, please give your job title

For complaints involving accounts or policies held jointly, each person needs to sign and we may share details about the complaint with both signatories. And you need to sign, even if someone else is complaining on your behalf. This shows you have given them your permission to complain for you. If you or the joint complainant do not wish to be contacted for feedback about our service or by telephone please contact your case handler.

why we process your personal information

Personal information means information that is about you – for example, your name, date of birth, financial details and phone conversations with us. With your consent, we process (eg collect, record, share) your personal information to help resolve your complaint including special category data such as information about your health where it's relevant to your case. We may contact you for feedback to help improve our service – but only if you give your consent. We may also use information about your case to spot any wider issues or trends in the complaints that we receive and to review and improve the effectiveness of our service. For example, we may review a group of similar complaints to check whether a product has been sold unfairly to consumers on a wide scale and what the cause might be. We'll only do this where we consider that there is a legitimate interest.

who we share your personal information with

We may share or check your information with the business your complaint is about and occasionally others – for example, another business or individual that was involved in your complaint (eg a broker, underwriter, lender or joint complainant) or a credit referencing agency.

Where we can, we keep your personal information within the European Economic Area. If that's not possible, we take appropriate steps to safeguard your information.

If you have a complaint about the service we've provided to you, and we've not been able to resolve this, you can ask the Independent Assessor to investigate your complaint about our service. We will pass on relevant details to the Independent Assessor so that they can investigate and respond to your service complaint.

how long we keep your personal information

We keep your personal information only for as long as we need to. This includes things like:

- We will keep your case file for 6 years after your case closes (or 3 years if we did not go on to fully investigate your case).
- We keep ombudsman decisions permanently.
- If you ask the Independent Assessor to look into a complaint about our service, the Independent Assessor's office will keep their case file for 6 years, (or 3 years if your complaint is not one that can be addressed by the Independent Assessor).

your rights

You have a right to withdraw your consent to us processing your personal information at any time. You can also ask us to delete your personal information or to restrict or object to the way we use it.

This may mean we won't be able to look into your complaint. We might also need to keep some personal information – for example, to avoid duplicate complaints or to comply with the law.

You have a right to receive any personal information you have given to us in an easy to use way – and to have it sent to another organisation. You can also ask us for a copy of your personal information and to correct it.

what to do if you're unhappy with how we've handled your personal information

Please first let the person looking after your complaint (or their manager) know so they can look into your concerns. You can also contact our data protection officer at:

data.protection@financial-ombudsman.org.uk.

If you're unhappy with our response, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at www.ico.org.uk, casework@ico.org.uk or 01625 545 745.
